FOR OUR VISITORS OR NEWCOMERS

This week's live streaming on YouTube & Facebook: 5:00pm Saturday contemporary service, Rite II; 9:00am Sunday traditional service, Rite II. Go to our website (listed above) for all of the information to do so.

Drive Thru Communion will be offered on Sunday from 9:00am - 12:00 noon. The communion wafers are in individual bags, and will be distributed using tongs. Gluten-Free Communion Wafers are available in the drive thru.

The church's public WIFI is HTCHURCH; the password is holy1830.

You can now worship with Holy Trinity even if you have no internet. Simply call 321-351-5272 at either 5pm on Saturday evening or 9am on Sunday morning to hear the live stream service on your telephone.

There are no flowers on the altar during Lent. Donations made during Lent will be used to purchase flowers for the birthday & anniversary bouquets that will be delivered to parishioners when flower deliveries resume. A donation has been given to the glory of God and in memory of Jack Piszczek, given by Mae Piszczek and family.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 20/21, 2021

JESUS SAYS "ABIDE IN ME AND BEAR GOOD FRUIT"

Evening Prayer led by Fr. Steve with Teachings from the Holy Trinity Clergy

Five Wednesdays in Lent at 7:00pm

(based on John 15:4-5a, 8-9 and Galatians 5:22-23, 25)

The challenge of the Gospel is to abide in Jesus and live by the Spirit so that we bear much fruit. What does that mean, based on Scripture, and what does that look like in our lives? The Holy Trinity clergy will meet the challenge by teaching on these questions:

1. February 24, Fr. Bill Lewis: "What does it mean to bear the fruit of love by abiding in Jesus?"
2. March 3, Deacon Christine Croskey: "What does it mean to bear the fruits of joy and peace through abiding in Jesus?"
3. March 10, Fr. Bob Bruckart: "What does it mean to have patience and kindness, because you are in Christ?"
4. March 17, Deacon Stacey Westphal: "What does the Bible tell us about generosity and faithfulness, because of Jesus?"
5. March 24, The Rev. Pam Easterday: "How do gentleness and self-control fit into the plan of our Savior?"

The worship and teaching will be offered in the main church with appropriate physical distancing and through live-streaming on Facebook and YouTube. Keep a Holy Lent and abide in Christ!

The new Directories have arrived!! If your picture is in the Directory you can pick up your copy at church this weekend. There are extra copies available to anyone who would like one, while supplies last.
